■ THE SPEECH

SPEECH <http://tiny.cc/ser7tz>

[...] We come to Berlin, we American Presidents, because it's our duty to speak in this place of freedom. But I must confess, we're drawn here by other things as well; by the feeling of history in this city – more than 500 years older than our own nation; by the beauty of the Grunewald and the Tiergarten; most of all, by your courage and determination. [...]

Our gathering today is being broadcast throughout Western Europe and North America. I understand that it is being seen and heard as well in the East. To those listening throughout Eastern Europe, I extend my warmest greetings and the good will of the American people. To those listening in East Berlin, a special word: Although I cannot be with you, I address my remarks to you just as surely as to those standing here before me. For I join you, as I join your fellow countrymen in the West, in this firm, this unalterable belief: Es gibt nur ein Berlin. [There is only one Berlin.]

Standing before the Brandenburg Gate, every man is a German separated from his fellow men.

Every man is a Berliner, forced to look upon a scar. [...]

There is one sign the Soviets can make that would be unmistakable, that would advance dramatically the cause of freedom and peace.

General Secretary Gorbachev, if you seek peace, if you seek prosperity for the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, if you seek liberalization: Come here to this gate.

Mr. Gorbachev, open this gate.

Mr. Gorbachev – Mr. Gorbachev, tear down this wall!

■ LET'S WORK ON IT

4 List the main points of the speech and answer the questions.

- 1 What is the message Reagan has for Gorbachev?
- 2 What does he do for the people living in East Berlin?
- 3 What is the meaning of the sentence 'Es gibt nur ein Berlin'?

■ BEYOND THE WORDS

Escaping the Berlin Wall

From 1961 to 1989 more than 600 people managed to escape from East Berlin. They used the most creative techniques to avoid Police and Stasi officers checkpoints.

5 Consider the pictures and do the activities suggested.

- 1 List some of the ways people used to escape from East Berlin.
- 2 How would you feel in the same situation? Imagine you leave everything to flee from your country looking for a better life.

6 The Berlin Wall soon became an open-air museum. Look at the pictures of the so-called East Side Gallery (<http://tiny.cc/iangtz>) and answer the questions.

- a Describe the two pictures that impressed you the most.
- b List some of the subjects of the paintings.
- c Why do you think people painted those subjects on the wall?
